 Why sit until you die (2 Kings 7)? Consider you have a family doctor, and you have a condition he cannot cure. He lacks wisdom, knowledge, and understanding. But, you know of another doctor that can help you. Are you going to deny yourself, by being faith to what does not work? Will you receive the help you need from another doctor and live? Should you remain faithful to your family doctor, or pursue the help needed from another? Should you sit suffer and die? Should you remain faithful to what is not working for you? Should you remain faithful to your family doctor whom you had for years? After all, he has been your doctor, your children's doctor, your parents' doctor and your grandparents' doctor. A decision has to be made! Wisdom should cry out, get the help you need!!! Accept the help made available to you.

Why worry about what people are going to say when you are dying, and in need. Remaining in a stupor, hopelessness and despair will prevent you from living. Do not allow traditions, fear, and the conversation of others to stand in the way of you getting the help you need. Once again, wisdom cries, cross over to the other side, and get the help you need. Once you get the help you need you can in-return help others.

Living Deliverance Ministry is an outreach ministry to help bridge the gap between false doctrine and the truth. There is an absence of the ministry of the Holy Spirit's presence in the churches of today. If we choose to live, to soar to higher height and deeper depth, there is a need to be in fellowship with Holy Spirit. Will you allowing Him to be fully in control of your life, Will you allow Him to lead and guide you on your journey? I pray you accept Him and live life at it's best.
